

Bargate Murray, the Luxury Asset law firm, and all three Partners are ranked as Leading Individuals in Yachts and Superyachts by the new 2017 Chambers HNW Guide

It has been another stellar year for the firm and all three of its Partners, Quentin Bargate, Adam Ramlugon, and Mark Needham, and their high ranking in the new, independently researched, 2017 Chambers HNW Guide reflects this. Here are a few quotes from the Guide:

- Bargate Murray: "Bargate Murray is lauded for its high quality of client service" and an insider praises their "deep knowledge of the industry"
- Quentin Bargate: "...has vast experience, he's very commercially minded and very hands-on". Another insider described Quentin as a "brilliant arbitrator, absolutely brilliant"
- Adam Ramlugon: "He is excellent at what he does..." and another said "...I was very, very impressed with him"
- Mark Needham: "..is an expert in superyachts, there's nothing he doesn't know" and another insider said of Mark "very sharp, enterprising, a problem solver..."

Quentin Bargate, Senior Partner, commenting, says:

"Bargate Murray has developed an exceptional reputation in a very competitive environment. Advising about Luxury Assets requires a different kind of law firm, devoid of pomposity or pretence, casual but clever, proactive not pedantic. We are that kind of law firm, and it is what clients – in particular, HNW clients - demand"
